

Orientation for Tohoku University International Researchers FY2022

The FY2022 IAC Orientation was distributed in video format so that all international researchers preparing to come to Japan can watch them anytime, anywhere. The orientation video covered a wide range of contents, including pre-departure procedures, life in Japan, introduction to IAC, interviews of AIMR researchers, sightseeing information, and other topics. (You can find the video here.) *Please note that the video is not the latest version.
